The "Nag" Mohammadi Scrolls

(Khadija's Secret Diary)

Exquisite, hand-written account by Khadija, Mohammad's wife, on long strips of camel-skin that were later cut into pages and bound into a secret diary of her life before, during, and after the Prophet Mohammad.

Kept secret by a hidden all-female cabal within Islam before it was discovered during an excavation in 1912, it reveals that the wife (the "Nag") of Mohammad scolded him constantly, and thought he was "touched by the Djinns" after he fell from Al Borak, his horse. "By then," she writes, "he was smoking so much hashish for his headaches, he believed that he was a flying carpet merchant."

It was around this time that her husband claimed to have been visited by the archangel Gabriel after he was seen talking to Gabriel, one of his camels. "Things are so bad," she writes, "we must move to Medina - maybe that will drive the Djinns from him."

Sure to be controversial, Khadija's Secret Diary (The "Nag" Mohammadi Scrolls) is a must read this summer that is certain to turn the Islamic world upside down.
